

John Trips

In June 2025 Johned worked from Athens. July 2025 he joined colleagues in Rome. August 2025 he wrapped up notes in Valencia. On September 2, 2025 he landed in Lisbon and started a rail leg. On September 3, 2025 he reached Porto and drafted a note to a friend that referred to a previous September visit; he did not include the details in that note here.

By September 5, 2025 he crossed to Vigo, then September 6, 2025 he was in Santiago de Compostela, and on September 7, 2025 he walked the headlands at A Coruña. He spent October 2025 in Paris and November 2025 in Geneva for meetings that had been scheduled since spring.

Earlier, April 2024 found him in Naples, and June 2024 in Warsaw. During a ferry delay that year he mailed a letter to a friend about a prior September trip; that earlier visit isn't described above. He closed November 2024 in Zurich and returned home in December 2024.
